

DIALOG--EPISODE THREE-Second Sequence

SCENE 101.

(In hall. Diana enters scene with rope. Drops it thru hole to Trent. A moment later he crawls thru hold and grasps her hands excitedly.)

TRENT Thank God you are safe, Diana! This gang is desperate; they'll stop at nothing.

DIANA The men are bad enough---but the ape---

TRENT What ape?

DIANA Just such an ape as old Dakka, the Wahili chief described. It came at me. I screamed. I-I--I don't know what happened. Then. I must have fainted---

TRENT (Putting two and two together in his own mind)
We've got to get back to town at once.

DIANA But my father-- is he a prisoner here?

TRENT I don't think so. But if he is, we'll need help to rescue him. I have evidence enough to arrest the whole gang.

DIANA (Gasps) Then you are not from the Archaeological Society-- you are a Government man!

TRENT Yes---and I'll ask the Government for aid immediately. If your father is here---I will find him.
(Diana gazes at him gratefully and allows Larry to lead her away.)
